Subject: Six Arrested in Undercover Prostitution Investigation

The Oshkosh Police Department arrested six people in Oshkosh on Thursday, November 17, 2016 during an undercover investigation targeting prostitution.

Four females and two males, ranging in age from 21-38 years old and who were from Milwaukee and Fond du Lac, were arrested.

Those arrested had the recommended charges sent to the Winnebago County District Attorney's Office for prostitution, drug possession, drug paraphernalia, pandering and bail jumping. Four of the six arrested were taken to jail.

The Oshkosh Police Department continues investigations into human trafficking; and no further information is being released due to these ongoing investigations.
